Task 1 English – Firstly, read:

It was the Queen's turn to praise Beowulf.

“May good fortune follow you, and may the rest of your life be filled with happiness and prosperity. And may treasure come your way often and in large amounts! Be strong but be gentle too and a wise guardian to my two boys. By them, by my lord Hrothgar and by myself too, your name will be held in honour and in love until the end of time.”

How the people cheered the Queen's words, how they dined and wined on the sumptuous food and drink, all held together in perfect harmony of joy and hope. They did not know then that before the night was through the joy and peace would end and the hope would be destroyed.

Now:

Write a prediction as to why you think the joy and peace will be over. Why will hope be destroyed? Remember to show off your writing skills - you must try to include some explanation for your ideas so you will need conjunctions such as:

Since, although, whereas, before, whilst, because, as, until

Task 2 Handwriting

Many nouns that end in f drop the f and add ves in the plural form.

Write the singular form of these words three times.

The first one has been done for you.

calves calf calf calf

halves

thieves

leaves loaves

scarves

wolves

Task 3 – Reading

Either read your book, select an e-book from Oxford Owl or Bug Club and read for at least 20 minutes.
