Task 1 English – Today we are going to look at the next part of Beowulf written as a play. Encourage some of your family members to read a character part with you. If possible, you could act the scene out or even video yourselves. Have fun!

Storyteller: Ashhere was Hrothgar's closest friend. The two were like brothers, so the king's eyes filled with tears. He knew that he would never see his friend again.

Hrothgar: Bring me Beowulf. Bring me Beowulf now!

Storyteller: When Beowulf heard about the attack he wasted no time.

Beowulf: My Lord, I will find Grendel's mother and defeat her.

Hrothgar: It won't be easy; they say she lives in a cave at the bottom of a lake.

Beowulf: My Lord, I will find her. I promise.

Storyteller: That night the Danes and the Geats rode together, searching, hunting. All night they rode and at daybreak they came to a deep lake. By the shore they saw huge footprints, each one splashed with blood.

Hrothgar: Ashhere. My poor friend...

Beowulf: Have no doubt, my Lord, I will avenge Ashhere's death.

Hrothgar: Beowulf, they say this sword has magical powers. Take it now - it is yours.

Beowulf: Thank you my Lord. With this sword I will kill the monster or die trying. Pray for me.

Storyteller: And with that, Beowulf dived into the lake and swam down into the deep.

Remember to use your bodies and voices to show how your character is feeling.

Fly a Flag

Fly a flag, float a boat.

Brush the fluff off your coat;

Get some flour, bake a cake,

Eat a giant chocolate flake;

Put on flip-flops, mop the floor –

But mind the flowerpot by the door!
